Sandhills Cattle Association's Mission:

To promote the cattle and resources of the Sandhills through education, marketing, communications and unique member services.

Sandhills Cattle Association's List Service

Since its beginning in the late 1930's, the Sandhills Cattle Association has been a clearing house of information for its members and buyers of Sandhills cattle.

In the mid-1980's it became clear there was a need for a data base of information pertaining to available feed and pasture as well as for ranch jobs and potential employees in the Sandhills and surrounding areas.

Initially the service was for Sandhills Cattle Association members, however, over the years, many non-members began utilizing the list service and the demand for the lists skyrocketed.

Because of the demand for the lists by non-members and expenses related to making those listings available, the Board of Directors elected to make the list service available on a subscription basis to non-members. The list service is a benefit of membership to producer members and for a nominal additional fee, associate members of can have access to the lists as well.

Sample Listings:
8/20/11 Joe Rancher, Anytown, NE 402-555-0000 has 100 T of prairie hay in big round bales for sale. Also willing to take in 100 cows year-round on either a cash or share basis.
8/20/11 Joe Rancher, Anytown, NE 402-555-0000 is seeking a full time ranch hand for general ranch work. Competitive salary, 4 bedroom house, close to grade school. References required.

The Lists

The Sandhills Cattle Association maintains four lists as a part of this service:

- Feed & Pasture Wanted
- Feed & Pasture Available
- Ranch Jobs
- Potential Ranch Employees

The lists are updated daily and are also posted on the Sandhills Cattle Association website, www.sandhillscattle.com.

Each list includes the basic information of: date, name, phone number(s), town and a brief description. Blind ads are discouraged. Those with listings are encouraged to update their listings regularly so that they are kept as current as possible.

Subscribers and Members can get the listings from the SCA website, www.sandhillscattle.com, by contacting the SCA office and requesting a user ID and password. When their request is processed, the web program will generate their user ID and password and send it to them via e-mail. Website users are encouraged to log on with the original password, then go to My Account and change the password to something they find easy to remember.

The Sandhills Cattle Association does not recommend or endorse any of the individuals utilizing the list service. The Association does not negotiate prices or terms of sale. All those using the list service are encouraged to ask for and check references.

Those wishing to have their listing included on one of the lists are asked to provide a brief description, plus the name and phone number of a contact person. (see form below)

Price Surveys

As we gather information to add to the lists and to keep them up-to-date, we will ask members and subscribers for price information. The information gathered is for office use only and sources are kept confidential.
